Opening Ceremony and Community Prayer:
You are invited to attend the Opening Ceremonies on Monday, June 4, and Monday, June 11, at 11:45 in Marquand Chapel. There is also a daily Community Prayer, Tuesday through Thursday, 11:45-12:10, in Nouwen Chapel located in the Divinity Library. To conclude the weeks, there will be a special Noon Prayer on both Fridays, at 11:45, in Marquand Chapel.

Welcome Luncheon:
All instructors and students are invited to the Welcome Luncheons on Monday, June 4, and Monday, June 11, to be served in the Common Room (Week 1) or the Old Refectory (Week 2), immediately following the Opening Ceremony; approximate starting time is 12:15.

- As part of the Yale Green Initiative, the hot lunches on each Monday will be meatless with a variety of pasta that will include a vegan and gluten-free option.
- Your nametag is your lunch pass. Please wear your nametag each day.

Keynote Address and Reception:
You are encouraged to attend the keynote addresses each week. For Week 1, on Tuesday, June 5, at 4:30, Prof. Bruce Gordon will deliver his keynote address, “‘The Seven-Headed Luther’: The Many Lives of the German Doctor.” For Week 2, on Tuesday, June 12, at 4:30, Prof. Miroslav Volf will deliver his keynote address, “Trampling on Pearls: The Forgotten Quest for What Matters Most.”

Immediately following each week’s keynote address is a small wine-and-cheese reception in the Refectory. Tickets are $10.00 and can be purchased through Campbell Harmon (campbell.harmon@yale.edu), if you did not already purchase during your initial registration.
Class Information

Class Syllabi, Book Lists, & Resources:
If an instructor has provided a class syllabus, book list, or required readings, those resources are listed at the bottom of the individual class page on our Class Description pages. Many instructors prefer to email information directly to their class roster or to hand it out on the first day of class.

The Divinity School Student Book Supply is open during Summer Study with great resources available to you, including popular books on religious topics, our own Divinity faculty publications, and pens, paper, and USB drives.

Summer Study participants are invited to explore the Divinity Library resources during the open hours, but a valid Yale Net ID is required to check out materials.

The Yale University Library system is open on a limited summer schedule. Ask for more information at the Divinity Library Circulation desk or contact the library you wish to visit directly.

WiFi and Computers:
To connect to Yale WiFi:

1. Open your wireless settings and choose the network “YaleGuest.”
2. Once your computer has indicated that you are connected to the “YaleGuest” WiFi , open a browser and wait for the blue Yale Terms of Use page to display.
3. Scroll to the bottom of the page to press the acceptance/ok/continue button.
4. You will now be connected to the Yale Guest WiFi.

   - If you have difficulty connecting, please try a different web browser or ask Summer Study staff for assistance.

There are no computer stations available for summer use on campus. You must bring your own laptop or tablet. Library computers are available for research only.

Printing:
Currently there is no open printing option for Summer Study participants. If you have a small, one-off print job, please contact Summer Study staff or visit the Yale Divinity Library for assistance.
Transportation around Yale:
Yale provides a free shuttle service around campus and a new Bikeshare program. Information, shuttle schedules and routes are available at https://to.yale.edu/ or via the free TransLoc Mobil app for your phone.

- The YDS campus and Pauli-Murray residential college are served by the Red Shuttle line and Blue Shuttle line. You can see a live map of all the shuttles at http://yale.transloc.com/

Campus Safety:
There are over 400 exterior blue safety phones around campus and a campus escort service. More information is available at https://your.yale.edu/community/public-safety
